Mannréttindastefna

Ég hef kynnt mér mannréttindastefnu Reykjavíkurborgar:

Hvernig samræmist verkefnið mannréttindastefnunni?: Toolraiser, our music event, aligns with Reykjavík City's Human Rights Policy in the following ways: Community Sharing: Toolraiser's primary goal is to encourage members of the community to donate items they no longer need. This act of sharing promotes a sense of community and cooperation among residents, contributing to the city's values of inclusion and community engagement. Equal Participation: We welcome donations from everyone in the community, regardless of their background, ensuring equal participation and promoting inclusivity in the event. Non-Discrimination: Toolraiser does not discriminate against any individuals or groups. We treat all donors and participants with respect and dignity, fostering a non-discriminatory environment. Transparency: We maintain transparency in our donation collection and distribution processes, providing donors with clear information about how their items will be shared within the community. Sustainability: Our event promotes sustainability by encouraging the reuse and sharing of items, aligning with Reykjavik City's commitment to environmental responsibility. Community Empowerment: Toolraiser empowers the community by allowing them to take an active role in sharing resources. By participating, community members can directly contribute to improving the well-being of their neighbors. Toolraiser supports Reykjavik City's Human Rights Policy by fostering community sharing, ensuring equal participation, preventing discrimination, maintaining transparency, promoting sustainability, and empowering the local community. We are proud to contribute to the values of inclusion and cooperation in our city.
