Fyrirhuguð þátttaka í leiðtogaþjálfun Bloomberg Harvard

Fyrirhuguð er ferð borgarstjóra í leiðtogaþjálfun Bloomberg Harvard City Leadership Initiative. Borgarstjóra er boðið til vinnustofunnar ásamt 40 öðrum borgarstjórum víðs vegar að úr heiminum en hann fer fram í New York í Bandaríkjunum dagana 22. til 25. júlí 2018. Vinnustofan er í heild til eins árs og að mestu kennd í fjarnámslotum við Harvard Business School og Harvard Kennedy School en það er góðgerðarstofnun Michael Bloomberg fyrrum borgarstjóra New York borgar sem stendur straum af kostnaði, þ.m.t. námskeiðsgjöldum, ferðum og gistingu. Auk borgarstjóranna er tveimur lykilstjórnendum frá hverri borg boðin þátttaka en markmið hennar er að efla með þátttakendum leiðtoga- og stjórnunar færni og gefa þeim kost á að afla sér hagnýtrar þekkingar og tengsla sem nýtist þeim beint í starfi. Gert er ráð fyrir að þeir stjórnendur sem veljast til þátttöku með borgarstjóra hefji hana þann 19. ágúst 2018. Hjálagt er boðsbréf Bloomberg Harvard City Leadership Initiative.

Boðskort um þátttöku í leiðtogaþjálfun Bloomberg Harvard City Leadership Initiative

Dear Mayor Eggertsson,

We are writing to invite you to apply to the Bloomberg Harvard City Leadership Initiative. This collaboration between Bloomberg Philanthropies, Harvard Business School, and Harvard Kennedy School is a yearlong leadership development program for mayors and senior members of their teams. Now welcoming its second class, the Initiative aims to serve mayors like you by supporting professional growth and strengthening key capabilities within city hall.

Participating mayors will kick off the program with an intensive three-day session in New York this July, followed by interactive classes throughout the year via a state-of-the-art virtual classroom. Through classroom conversation, engaging management training, candid peer discussion, and a personal leadership assessment, the full-year program aims to help mayors advance their leadership of their cities.

Mayors will also have the opportunity to nominate two top-level leaders who are critical to running the government to participate in a dedicated intensive four-day session in New York in August. As mayors focus on strengthening their personal leadership capabilities throughout the year, the program will help senior staff advance key practices for successful civic leadership, including innovation, collaboration, use of data and evidence, and citizen engagement.

Taken together, the program provides a platform to connect mayors to a global network of peers and some of Harvard's top educators and coaching experts. It also provides an opportunity to share best practices and learn from fellow mayors about the promising ideas that are already helping to enhance quality of life in cities around the world.

We encourage you to apply to the Bloomberg Harvard City Leadership Initiative by clicking on your personal invitation link here. More information about the program is attached, and additional details can be found at cityleadership.harvard.edu. If you have questions, please feel free to contact Executive Director David Margalit at David_Margalit@harvard.edu.

Thank you for your commitment to leading an effective and innovative government.
We wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Bloomberg
