

CITY LIBRARY AND CULTURE CENTER KRINGLAN

 Bus routes 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 13, 14 og 55 stop near Kringlan

FACILITIES AND SUPPORT

At the library you can get access to free wifi and use a computer. It is also possible to print out documents but for a fee.

The library is a quiet place where you can sit down, have a cup of coffee, read books and magazines or play cards.

ADDRESS & OPENING HOURS

Mondays to Thursdays from 10 am - 6:30 pm.

Fridays from 11 am - 6:30 pm.

Saturdays from 1 pm - 5 pm.

Sundays from 1 pm - 5 pm

(closed on Sundays at summer time).

Listabraut 3, 103 Reykjavík (Kringlan)

Website:

www.borgarbokasafn.is/en/library/kringlan-en

HOMEWORK ASSISTANCE

Once a week kids can get assistance with their homework. When the kids arrive they get snacks and drinks. Volunteers, some who used to be teachers help the kids. This is especially convenient for kids of foreign origin. This program is designed for kids in 3rd to 10th grade in elementary schools. Free entry!

WOMEN'S STORY CIRCLE

The Women's story circle serves as a platform for women to exchange stories, experiences and cultural backgrounds in a relaxed environment, as well as taking part in creative activities. It is also a great place for women to practice their Icelandic if they wish to do so. The story circle takes place at the city center library Grófin (Tryggvagata 15, 101 Reykjavík) and is open to all women. The Facebook group Women's story circle shares all informations about events and meetings.

Free entry!

---

STORYTELLING - WORLD FAIRIES

Storytelling in foreign languages e.g. Icelandic, English, Polish, Lithuanian and Spanish. For more information about time and language of storytelling please contact the library and culture center. Free entry!

EVENING STROLL

The library hosts evening strolls once a week during the summer months from the city center library Grófin where participants receive a guided tour of the city. Once per summer the evening stroll is in various foreign languages, that event is called Reykjavík Safari.

Free entry!

---

THE BOOK TRUCK

The book truck is parked at Kringlan but drives to different locations four days a week. When the truck parks, kids can find books and read in a comfortable environment. For more information about locations where the truck parks, please contact the library and culture center.

Free entry!